

I urge you not to lift restrictions on media cross-ownership. I strongly object to the almost total absence of public debate. It is your obligation to us, the citizens and owners of the airwaves, to hold public hearings and abide by the will of the people.